Show Reception:
Thursday, October 6th, 5-8 p.m.

Artist Statement:

"Painting has the decency to hold still, as few dare or can, permitting one's eye a tiny but wild freedom: to travel as it will."

About the Artist:

"Eventually (just you watch!) somebody is going to ask you to say something about yourself. What if I just say that on certain evenings, around age 11, I would place my hands on the metal bars of the neighbor's jungle gym . . . and they, the bars, the arms . . . they just weren't there. It's been like that ever since."
