- an exhibition that celebrates the boundless possibilities of artistic expression and the enduring spirit of independence. Opening July 9, 2024

Art Through Creative Independence

NEW YORK, NY / MAY, 2024/ As the New York Society of Women Artists approaches its 100th year, the organization reflects vast diversity in the backgrounds and experiences of its artists similar to those of its founding Mavericks. This vibrant exhibit of two- and three-dimensional works on exhibit expresses the organization's quest for independence and freedoms by thirty-one of our members. Our mission of strength and artistic excellence continues into the next century for our challenged rights, revealing the truths that may seem self-evident.

Read, Right, & True will be on view at The Blue Mountain Gallery, 547 West 27th Street, Suite #200 New York, NY 10001 Chelsea, July 9 - July 27.

New York Society of Women Artists champions the vital role of art in shaping discourse, challenging narratives, and illuminating truth.

As the New York Society of Women Artists (NYSWA) approaches its 100th year, the organization reflects the change of this century with vast diversity in the backgrounds and experiences of its members, equally expressed in the scope of mediums, subject matter, forms of expression, and narrative. This July, in the heart of Chelsea, amidst the vibrant pulse of New York City, our exhibition will burst with energy parading our creative power. Through dynamic explorations of theme, color, form, and expression, we delve into the very fabric of creative freedom, embracing the spirit of justice, renewal, and possibility. This exhibition marks the launch of NYSWA's Centennial programs and reflect innovative artwork that capture the push and pull of our independence, where balance is at stake and creative invention, NYSWA's greatest strength achieves strength to find balance through the collective of works represented in Read Right and True: Declarations of Creative Independence.

ABOUT THE NEW YORK SOCIETY OF WOMEN ARTISTS: NYSWA is a historical organization, which was created to promote Avant Garde women artists. Our organization included notable founding members such as the late Theresa Bernstein, Anne Goldthwaite, and other acclaimed artists including Marguerite Zorach, our first president.

In more recent times, our steadfast commitment to New York arts and culture has earned a personal address from Secretary of State Robert Rodriguez, lauding our efforts in the community, nurturing individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences. Subsequently, NYSWA was awarded a proclamation from Governor Kathy Hochul for the organization's contribution to women in the arts and to the citizens of New York State.
