In these uncertain times, one thing is certain: Blue Mountain Gallery is going strong! The artists' rich variety of styles will be on vivid display in its new group show, From the Studio. Blue Mountain's history of showcasing the work of strong representational painters, and the expansion of its mission and vision to include equally strong abstract work, inform this exciting exhibition. Nature, humanity, the language of color, the possibilities of form—Blue Mountain's artists take on those themes and more.

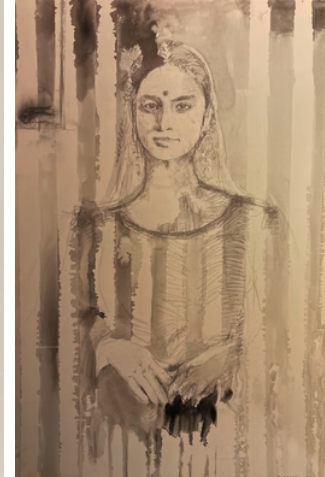

The reception at Manhattanville College, February 16 at 11 am, will include a talk by artists about their work, followed by refreshments. Berger Gallery hours: Tuesday-Thursday 1-6PM, Saturday 2-6PM and by appointment
